

Family Talk –Fatherhood

READ TOGETHER

1 Thessalonians 2:11–12

What does it look like

1. For a parent to treat a child well?
2. For a child to honor a parent?
3. To live your life in a way that God would consider worthy? (vs 12)

LIVE IT

Sometimes parent/child relationships are difficult to navigate. Parents aren't perfect and don't always get it all right. Children are still trying to figure out who they are and how to handle relationships. But the Bible tells us that God is, in fact, a perfect Father who loves us unfaithfully. As His children, we are called to honor Him with the way we live.

As a family, discuss what it means to be a child of God. Can you tell by someone's actions if they are living for Him? If someone observed your life, would they see you living to honor your Heavenly Father?

LEAN ON GOD

Father God,

Thank You for loving us. Our actions at times are not honoring to You. We humbly repent and ask You to lead us in Your ways. May our lives be used to bring You glory and advance Your Kingdom.

In Jesus' name,

Amen
